All courses are offered for credit and audit with the exception of Counselling Abusive Marriages and Case Study Seminar. Audit students will gain access to all course content including audio, video lectures, and readings, and they complete all coursework and participate in online community discussion boards. However, audit students do not have access to a Recitation Instructor, so they do not submit any course assignments or receive graded feedback on individual work done for the course. Audit courses do not apply towards an SBC Certificate of Completion.
